owner shot dead in US

Washington

A 76-year-old Indian-origin motel owner was shot dead by a customer in the US state of Alabama following an altercation over a room, the latest in a string of tragedies to shock the community in the country.

Raojibhai Pravin Patel, who owned Hillcrest Motel in Sheffield, was shot dead last week.

According to Shetfield Police Chief Ricky Terry, William Jeremy Moore, 34, was arrested for the shooting death of Patel on February 8, WAFF TV, a television station in Huntsville, reported.

Officials said the shooting was the result of an altercation that occurred when Pravin Raoiibhai Patel who owned Hillcrest Motel in Sheffield, was shot dead last week.

Moore came to the property looking to rent a room. Moore pulled a gun and shot Patel, Terry said. "Moore was quickly apprehended by Sheffield Police on 13th Avenue when he was trying to break into an abandoned house," he said. When searching

Moore, the murder weapon was found in his possession. A felony complaint states Patel tried to get Moore to leave before the shooting. Moore started to leave when he then turned and shot Patel twice in the chest. Iemeriz a barber working across the street, bore witness to the aftermath. "I heard three gunshots," Owens recounted, visibly shaken. "I can't believe it; he was just doing his job." Asian American

Hotel Owners Association in a statement said America's hotel owners are deeply saddened, shocked, and outraged by this senseless act of violence against a small business owner that cost him his life. "Senseless acts of violence have no place in our communities, and our hearts are breaking for Pravin's family, including his wife, children, and grandchildren," said AAHOA Chairman Bharat Patel.
