US biz lobby sues Trump admin over H-1B visa fee

The US Chamber of Commerce called it as unlawful

PTI
Washington

The US Chamber of Commerce has filed a lawsuit against the Donald Trump administration's decision to impose a USD 100,000 fee on all new H-1B visa petitions, describing it as "misguided policy and plainly unlawful" action that could cripple American innovation and competitiveness.

The lawsuit, filed Thursday in a district court in Columbia, challenges the administration's September 19 proclamation, 'Restriction on entry of certain non-immigrant workers', arguing that it violates the Immigration and Nationality Act by overriding Congress' authority to regulate the H-1B visa programme.

The departments of Homeland Security and State, along with their secretaries, Kristi L Noem and Marco Rubio, respectively, have been named as defendants.

The exorbitant fee, up from the current level of

The lawsuit, filed in a district court in Columbia, challenges the administration's September 19 proclamation, 'Restriction on entry of certain nonimmigrant workers'.

around USD 3,600, would make it "cost-prohibitive for US employers, especially start-ups and small and midsize businesses to utilize the H-1B programme, which was created by Congress expressly to ensure that American businesses of all sizes can access the global talent they need to grow their operations here", said Neil Bradley, Executive Vice President and Chief Policy Officer at the US Chamber.

In its complaint, the business body said the proclamation is "not only misguided policy; it is plainly unlawful".

The president, it said, has significant authority over the entry of noncitizens into the US, but that authority is bounded by statute and cannot directly contradict laws passed by Congress.

"The proclamation does precisely that: It blatantly contravenes the fees Congress has set for the H-1B programme and countermands Congress's judgment that the programme should provide a pathway for up to 85,000 people annually to contribute their talents to the United States for the betterment of American society," it stated.

Yunus signs July Charter for new B'desh

PTI
Dhaka

Bangladesh's interim government chief Muhammad Yunus on Friday said a "new Bangladesh" was born with the signing of a joint declaration called the July Charter at a ceremony boycotted by his key ally, student-led National Citizen Party (NCP).

The charter, drafted after marathon talks between the interim government-instituted National Consensus Commission headed by Yunus, and political parties, contains over 80 reform proposals for different sectors.

"It's the birth of a new Bangladesh," said Yunus, as leaders of different political parties signed the document at a ceremony at Parliament Complex.

The chief adviser's press wing said 25 parties including former prime minister Khaleda Zia's Bangladesh Nationalist Party, and Jamaat-e-Islami, signed it.

Bangladesh Police fire teargas to disperse protesters near Parliament

Bangladesh police on Friday fired teargas and used batons and sound grenades to disperse protesters gathered near the Parliament after they refused to vacate the area, amid uncertainty over the signing of a joint declaration called the July Charter.

Hundreds of protesters had gathered in front of the stage made for the signing ceremony of the July Charter, demanding state recognition, legal protection and rehabilitation for those injured during the demonstrations that toppled then-prime minister Sheikh Hasina's Awami League regime in August 2024, bdnews24.Com reported.

The protesters reportedly entered the Parliament premises by scaling its main gates in the morning before gathering in front of the stage. When members of the security forces tried to prevent them, the protesters sat on chairs reserved for guests and began chanting slogans, the news portal said.

The protesters vandalised at least two police vehicles, set fire to the temporary reception room, temporary control room and furniture built in front of the MP Building.

Police used force to clear them from the plaza. Officers chased them out of the Parliament compound, beating several demonstrators with batons and firing tear gas and sound grenades, it added.

The July Charter has been drafted after marathon talks between the interim government-instituted commission and political parties.

The National Citizen Party (NCP), a key ally of Chief Adviser Muhammad Yunus, has said it would not sign the document.

‘Probe into singer Zubeen’s death may take 3 months more’

PTI
Singapore

Investigations into the death of popular Indian singer and songwriter Zubeen Garg may take up to another three months, after which the findings will be submitted to the State Coroner for further proceedings, the Singapore police said on Friday.

Garg, 52, a celebrated musician from Assam, died on September 19 due to drowning while swimming off St John's Island in Singapore. The singer was in the city-state as a cultural brand ambassador for the North East India Festival scheduled for September 20-21.

The Singapore Police Force (SPF) in a statement said its investigations into Garg's death "may take up to another three months or so".

Upon completion of the SPF's investigations, the findings will be submitted to the State Coroner in Singapore, "who will then determine whether to hold a Coroner's Inquiry (CI)", the statement said.

fact-finding process led by a Judicial Officer to establish the cause and circumstances of death, with its findings made public upon conclusion.

The SPF said despite the ongoing investigation, it has shared a copy of Garg's autopsy report and preliminary findings with the High Commission of India on October 1, upon their request.

The SPF is committed to conducting a thorough and professional investigation into the case, and this takes time, it said.

"We seek the patience and understanding of the parties involved. Meanwhile, we urge the public not to speculate and spread unverified information," police said.

Preliminary investigations have not indicated any foul play in Garg's death, they reiterated.
